- Reminder: GunShow at Perry Ag Center this weekend.
- Everyone have a great Thanksgiving

LVR is providing the carnivorous plate, everyone else provides pot-luck.... not sure who volunteered for what... so those that will be in attendance for luncheon please reply with desired/planned accompaniment...

Also feel free to forward email to anyone else who may be interested in joining... family/friends are always welcome...

Thelma suggested I bring Mac-n-cheese, also may be able to stop by Sam's and pick up an apple pie....

Reminder the Christmas portion of December gathering is traditional $15 gift exchange....GUNSHOW this weekend is great opportunity to pick something up..... or plan ahead an order something from Brownells, CheaperThanDirt, MidwayUSA.....or one of many SASS/Cowboy vendors out thereeven Hobby Lobby has a unique western section.

SE Regional Championship (Gunfight at Givhans Ferry) Summerville SC (Nov 12th) - was a good roundup with around 250 shooters, 10 stages with posse size of about 15..... I was lucky to be assigned to posse 5 - a great bunch.... The people were better than my shooting.... was hard to hold onto funds with all the great vendors.... Overall a good event.

Lonesome Valley Regulators November Shootout

Thanks to No-Limit and Isom-Dart for planning / setup of a new stage 5, now requiring a full 100 round shootout. Keep those bullet presses warm....

Possibly add some rifle "Clay" shots like setup at "Gunfight at Givens Ferry"

Would like to keep a running list of local clubs and their plans/schedule - so if anyone knows, share the info....

Next major event is the Florida "Last Stand 2012" SASS Championship in St Augustine (Jan 5-8).....
